To whom this may concern,

September 3, 2024

My name is Amy Otstott. I am a resident of Pennsylvania residing in Dauphin County, at 102 Carolyn Street, Harrisburg, Pa. 17112. Hadassah Feinberg and I met in 2017 when we worked together at T.W. Ponessa Counseling Services. I have a close relationship with Hadassah Feinberg and have witnessed many of the crimes committed against Hadassah Feinberg by the Defendants.

Hadassah Feinberg has always been a law-abiding citizen helping advocate for victims of crime. On October 12, 2023, Hadassah Feinberg saved Marcie Gail Smith's four minor children after they were left abandoned, unclothed, and soiled in feces at 63 North 18th street, Harrisburg, Pa 17103. Hadassah Feinberg is an experienced and licensed foster adoptive mother with Dauphin County Children and Youth Services who adopted her youngest child in April, 2022. She provided shelter and care to the four Smith children for a total of five days at 3807 Bonnyview Rd. Harrisburg, Pa 17109. On October 16, 2023, the fourth day of caring for the Smith children, Hadassah Feinberg filed a complaint to the Department of Human Services against Defendants for failing to assist the abused children. The Defendants subsequently filed a complaint against Hadassah Feinberg in retaliation on October 18, 2023. During this time, the three older children were harassed daily at their schools through unlawful interrogation.

Hadassah Feinberg is a wonderful mother and has always had sole custody of her four children, Ella Liat Feinberg, Ariel Netanel Feinberg, Eliana Atara Feinberg, and Ben Natan Feinberg. She maintains a cordial and healthy relationship with their father, Mr. Di Vita who visits regularly from California. Hadassah Feinberg moved to Florida with her four minor children on March 25, 2024, seeking asylum from the public corruption. Upon their arrival in the State of Florida, Hadassah Feinberg notified Governor Ron De Santis, FDLE, and Clay County Sherriff that they were seeking protection against public corruption because of retaliation, and false reports made by Marisa McClellan, Lisa Wheeler, Scott Smith, Donald L. Carmelite and Marcie Smith for exposing their crimes. Hadassah Feinberg and her four children live in and own their home in Florida that was redacted through the Clay County Clerk of Court in May 2024 for their safety and protection against harassment, threats, stalking, etc. by the Defendants.

Hadassah Feinberg has expressed her first amendment rights and been vocal about the crimes the Defendants committed in October 2023 and has worked with hundreds of victims in the State of Pennsylvania seeking assistance and remedy from public corruption.

Hadassah Feinberg and her children have a valid fear of being harmed repeatedly by the Defendants who already removed Hadassah Feinberg's children once on false grounds and hearsay for 13 days from November 3, 2023, to November 16, 2023 which was dismissed by the Cumberland County Court of Common Pleas. The Defendants continue to perjure themselves on official record before the Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court stating in their Brief on July 31, 2024, that they have custody of Hadassah's four children even though their false reports and Petition in the Court, were previously dismissed and unfounded on November 16, 2023.

Hadassah Feinberg's children were never adjudicated, because the reports were fabricated by the employees who were retaliating against Hadassah Feinberg for exposing their crimes against Marcie Gail Smith's children.

On August 26, 2024, the Dauphin County Court of Common Pleas Granted Emergency Removal of Marcie Gail Smith's children, and on August 29, 2024, the Court scheduled a Dependency Hearing for Marcie Gail Smith's children. Hadassah Feinberg had taken the Smith children in to the Emergency Room to be treated on October 13, 2023 after she discovered their permanent bruises.

Marcie Gail Smith, Marisa McClellan, Lisa Wheeler, Scott Smith, and Donald L. Carmelite are obstructing justice and covering up crimes against Marcie Gail Smith's children. They are harassing, threatening, and intimidating Hadassah Feinberg for exposing their crimes. They are stalking her social media accounts and stalking her residence through an abuse of authority with a postal worker.

Hadassah Feinberg has sued the Defendants in State and Federal Court for Civil Rights violations, and RICO crimes. She has also named all five defendants in a criminal complaint which is being investigated by the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office, District Attorney James Dellafiora.

On ~~October~~^{August} 29, 2024, the Defendants unlawfully obtained Hadassah Feinberg's Court redacted address by falsifying reports to a USPS employee in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. The USPS Employee directly reported and communicated with this witness, Kasey Wright, and Sherry Wright. The Defendants listed herein intimidated us and used threatening statements to intimidate us against helping Hadassah Feinberg. Hadassah Feinberg has been lawfully using my address for mail since November 3, 2023, at 102 Carolyn Street, Harrisburg, Pa 17112, to protect her children and herself from retaliation, physical threat, and harassment by the Defendants. The Defendants are now trying to intimidate witnesses, so Hadassah Feinberg is isolated, and ambushed with their false reports.

I am a direct witness of the unlawful tactics the Defendants are using to bolster their fraudulent claims and conceal their crimes. I have been in close communication and have spent months with Hadassah Feinberg and her children throughout their fight to survive the public corruption. Hadassah is an amazing person who fights for justice, not just for herself but for hundreds of other victims.

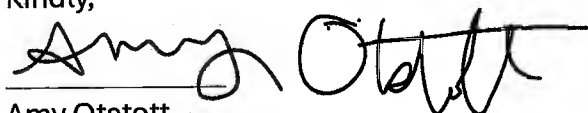

Donald L. Carmelite has threatened to kill and coverup the murder of Hadassah Feinberg just like other Pennsylvania employees concealed the murder of Ellen Greenberg as a suicide. The public corruption in Pennsylvania is out of control and Hadassah Feinberg and her children are thriving in Florida schools and communities with the assistance and protection of the Clay County Sheriff's Department. Hadassah Feinberg fears that the retaliation, threats, and harassment will destroy what she has started building in Florida and will physically harm her and her children.

Hadassah Feinberg has a legal right to sue the Defendants for the harm and injury they caused her family in Pennsylvania without fearing for her life in Florida. The Defendants behavior on August 20, 2024, August 29, 2024, August 30, 2024, and September 3, 2024, is threatening the safety of Hadassah Feinberg and her children, harassing Hadassah Feinberg and her children, and stalking Hadassah Feinberg and her children. Hadassah Feinberg's children are afraid to sleep away from their mother because of the trauma induced by the Defendants threats and physical actions.

The threatening and ongoing stalking behavior of the Defendants, is raising concern for Hadassah Feinberg's family and friends, like myself, who have been primary witnesses of the Defendants crimes up to today's date. For example, in August 2024, the Defendant's wrote Hadassah Feinberg messages on social media telling her to "have fun at Guantanamo Bay" and have mocked and to "purchase kevlar" inferring that she will suffer permanent injury or fatality with deadly force from the Defendants. Hadassah Feinberg has purchased a bulletproof vest as a result and continues to live in fear for her children's lives and her own life. Hadassah is fighting for her & her children's lives daily, This family deserves justice for the trauma that they are going through.

If you have any questions feel free to call me at (717) 317-7377.

Kindly,

Amy Otstott

In response to numerous communications I received from you since October 2023, I have consulted with local authorities in Pennsylvania, FBI personnel, FBI victim services, and my management at Washington Field on this matter. ORDER OF COURT

AND NOW, this 22nd day of October, 2024, upon return of the appeal herein from the Superior Court, it is HEREBY ORDERED that the Applications for Emergency Protective Custody for the above referenced minors are DISMISSED as moot. 1

BY THE COURT:

William P. Mahon, Senior Judge

1. These private applications were filed on July 5, 2024, all alleging the need for protective custody for the four minor children because of lack of adequate parental supervision and varying forms of abuse for alleged conduct prior to October 17, 2023. On October 30, 2023, the Dauphin County Children and Youth Services (Agency) filed with the Dauphin County Juvenile Court, four Dependency Petitions, one for each of the above referenced children. The children were then under the jurisdiction of the Agency and Juvenile Court. On April 18, 2024, the Juvenile Court entered orders that there was full compliance with the developed permanency plans; the children were currently in safe settings, and all cases were terminated. See orders of 4/18/2024 in case NOS. CP-22-DP-204, 205, 206 & 207 of 2023. Since all the circumstances raised by private applicant have been addressed by the Agency and the Juvenile Court, and terminating orders entered, Applicant's private applications are moot.

Re: 16 Pa. § 1405 Misconduct of District Attorney

COMPLAINT FOR REMOVAL OF DISTRICT ATTORNEY

I, Hadassah Feinberg, Dorothy Watson, and Daniel Harris, hereby verify by oath and affirmation, and as aggrieved parties, in response to the willful and gross negligence of the Dauphin County District Attorney, Francis Chardo, charge the Dauphin County District Attorney, Francis Chardo, and Dauphin County Assistant District Attorney, Colin Zwally, with willful and gross negligence in the execution of the duties of the office.

Pursuant to 16 Pa. § 1405, this Court shall cause notice of this Complaint to be given to the district attorney and of the time fixed by the court for a hearing.

If after the hearing the court shall be of opinion that there is probable cause for the Complaint, they shall hand over or commit the district attorney to answer the same in due course of law.

The District Attorney is sworn into office to maintain and uphold the duties of public office pursuant to state and federal laws. 16 Pa. Code §1405 states:

(a) If any district attorney shall willfully and corruptly demand, take or receive any other fee or reward than such as is prescribed by law for any official duties required by law to be executed by the district attorney in any criminal proceeding, or if such district attorney shall be guilty of willful and gross negligence in the execution of the duties of the office, that individual shall be guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and, on conviction thereof, be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) and to undergo imprisonment not exceeding one year, and the office shall be declared vacant.

(b) Upon complaint in writing, verified by oath or affirmation of the party aggrieved, made to the court in which any district attorney shall prosecute the pleas of the Commonwealth, charging such district attorney with willful and gross negligence in the execution of the duties of the office, the court shall cause notice of the complaint to be given to the district attorney and of the time fixed by the court for a hearing. If after the hearing the court shall be of opinion that there is probable cause for the complaint, they shall hand over or commit the district attorney to answer the same in due course of law. If the court shall be of opinion that there is no probable cause for such complaint, they shall dismiss the same, with reasonable costs to be assessed by the court.

The Dauphin County District Attorney, Francis Chardo, and Dauphin County Assistant District Attorney, Colin Zwally, are guilty of willful and gross negligence in their public positions because they have obstructed justice, conspired with political and state actors to conceal and destroy evidence of crimes committed, and failed to uphold the duties they are sworn to protect.

Francis Chardo and Colin Zwally are named Defendants in an active lawsuit for RICO crimes in the State of Maryland and should be removed from office so that the public is protected from unnecessary crimes and corruption. If this Court should fail to respond to this Complaint in a timely Manner, an Action in Mandamus shall be filed before the Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court.

DEFENDANT IS HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT FAILURE TO OBEY THIS ORDER MAY RESULT IN ARREST AS SET FORTH IN 23 PA.C.S. § 6113 AND THAT VIOLATION OF THE ORDER MAY RESULT IN A CHARGE OF INDIRECT CRIMINAL CONTEMPT AS SET FORTH IN 23 PA.C.S. § 6114. VIOLATION MAY ALSO SUBJECT YOU TO PROSECUTION AND CRIMINAL PENALTIES UNDER THE PENNSYLVANIA CRIMES CODE. A VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER MAY RESULT IN THE REVOCATION OF THE SAFEKEEPING PERMIT, WHICH WILL REQUIRE THE IMMEDIATE RELINQUISHMENT OF YOUR FIREARMS, OTHER WEAPONS, AND AMMUNITION TO THE SHERIFF OR THE APPROPRIATE LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY. PLAINTIFF'S CONSENT TO CONTACT BY DEFENDANT SHALL NOT INVALIDATE THIS ORDER, WHICH CAN ONLY BE MODIFIED BY FURTHER ORDER OF COURT. 23 PA.C.S. § 6108(g).

THIS ORDER IS ENFORCEABLE IN ALL FIFTY (50) STATES, THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, TRIBAL LANDS, U.S. TERRITORIES AND THE COMMONWEALTH OF PUERTO RICO UNDER THE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT, 18 U.S.C. §2265. IF YOU TRAVEL OUTSIDE OF THE STATE AND INTENTIONALLY VIOLATE THIS ORDER, YOU MAY BE SUBJECT TO FEDERAL CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS UNDER THAT ACT. 18 U.S.C §§2261-2262. IF YOU POSSESS A FIREARM OR ANY AMMUNITION WHILE THIS ORDER IS IN EFFECT, YOU MAY BE CHARGED WITH A FEDERAL CRIMINAL OFFENSE EVEN IF THIS PENNSYLVANIA ORDER DOES NOT EXPRESSLY PROHIBIT YOU FROM POSSESSING FIREARMS OR AMMUNITION UNDER 18 U.S.C. §922(g)(8) OR STATE CRIMINAL OFFENSES AND STATE CRIMINAL PENALTIES UNDER 18 PA.C.S. § 6105.

NOTICE TO SHERIFF, POLICE AND LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICIALS

The police and sheriff who have jurisdiction over Plaintiff's residence OR any location where a violation of this order occurs OR where Defendant may be located, shall enforce this order. The court shall have jurisdiction over any indirect criminal contempt proceeding, either in the county where the violation occurred or where this protective order was entered. An arrest for violation of Paragraphs 1 through 6 of this order may be without warrant, based solely on probable cause, whether or not the violation is committed in the presence of the police or any sheriff. 23 Pa.C.S. § 6113.

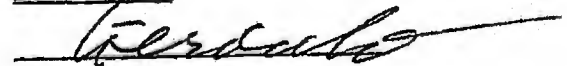

Subsequent to an arrest, and without the necessity of a warrant, the police officer or sheriff shall seize all firearms, other weapons, and ammunition in Defendant's possession that were used or threatened to be used during the violation of the protection order or during prior incidents of abuse and any other firearms in Defendant's possession.

The Lackawanna County Sheriff's Department shall maintain possession of the firearms, other weapons, or ammunition until further order of this court.

When Defendant is placed under arrest for violation of this order, Defendant shall be taken to the appropriate authority or authorities before whom Defendant is to be arraigned. A "Complaint for Indirect Criminal Contempt" shall then be completed and signed by the police officer, sheriff, OR Plaintiff. ORDER

NOW, this 12th day of AUGUST, 2022, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Motion to Strike the Petition for Review filed on behalf of Liberty Healthcare Corporation is GRANTED. Attorney Shane Scanlon represents Paul Wolski, Sr. and joins in the Motion to Strike. Ms. Yvonne Worman filed a Petition for a Review Hearing on May 10, 2022, in which she requested that this Court remove Family Service Association of Northeast Pennsylvania as Guardian of the Person and Estate of Paul M. Wolski, Sr. 20 Pa. C.S.A. §5512.2 provides in part the following:

The court may set a date for a review hearing in its order establishing the guardianship or hold a review hearing at any time it shall direct. The court shall conduct a review hearing promptly if the incapacitated person, guardian, or any interested party petitions the court for a hearing for reason of a significant change in the person's capacity, a change in the need for guardianship services, or the guardian's failure to perform his duties in accordance with the law or act in the best interest of the incapacitated person. The court may dismiss a petition for review hearing if it determines that the petition is frivolous.

Ms. Worman is Mr. Wolski's sister, however she is not an interested party within the meaning of §5512.2. An interested party is an individual who is required to receive notice of the proceedings due to their standing as parent, spouse, or a presumptive heir at the time of the proceedings. 20 PA. C.S.A. §5511(a). On February 28, 2022, this Court entered a final Protection from Abuse Order against Ms. Worman on behalf of Mr. Wolski due to harassing conduct on her part. Ms. Worman filed a Notice of Appeal of the Protection from Abuse Order on April 18, 2022, thereby rendering this Court unable to alter the terms of the Order as it lacks jurisdiction pursuant to Pa. R.A.P. §1701. Ms. Worman's Petition seeks appointment as her brother's guardian, however, she is barred from contact with her brother and cannot serve as guardian. Given that Ms. Worman is not an interested party, she cannot request a review hearing, and accordingly, the Motion to Strike must be Granted.

ORDER

NOW, this 22ND day of DECEMBER, 2022, after a hearing conducted to review the guardianship of Paul M. Wolski, Sr., this Court finds that the guardianship shall remain in full force and effect and that Family Service Association of Northeastern Pennsylvania shall continue as Guardian of the Person and Guardian of the Estate of Paul M. Wolski, Sr. and shall perform any and all duties as set forth in 20 Pa. C.S.A. Section 5521 et seq.

This Court further finds that Yvonne Worman, the sister of Mr. Wolski, having a negative and harmful effect on the well being and recovery of Paul M. Wolski, Sr., that she is interfering with his participation in occupational therapy, physical therapy and speech therapy to the extent that his recovery not only ceased, but has regressed, and she IS HEREBY ORDERED to have limited contact with her brother which may only take place in the form of supervised visits at the Universal Institute Group Home at which he is residing which must be approved by said Guardian. Communication by Yvonne Worman with Paul M. Wolski, Sr. in any other manner shall constitute a violation of this Court Order and subject the said Yvonne Worman to contempt of Court proceedings. It is the intent of this Order to allow limited supervised contact between Yvonne Worman and Paul M. Wolski, Sr. in order the facilitate the regular and orderly participation of Paul M. Wolski, Sr. in physical, occupational and speech therapy.

Appellant

Appeal from the Order Entered February 28, 2022
In the Court of Common Pleas of Lackawanna County
Civil Division at No(s): 2022-40213

BEFORE: PANELLA, P.J., McLAUGHLIN, J., and PELLEGRINI, J.*

MEMORANDUM BY PANELLA, P.J.:

FILED: APRIL 5, 2023

Yvonne Worman appeals from the Lackawanna County Court of Common Pleas' order granting a Protection from Abuse ("PFA") petition filed on behalf of Worman's brother, Paul Wolski. Worman has filed an appellate brief which fails to comply with the Rules of Appellate Procedure in such a substantial manner that we are unable to conduct a meaningful review of any issues Worman is purporting to raise. As such, we are constrained to quash the appeal.

Given our disposition of the case, we need only provide the most general overview of the factual and procedural history of this case. Due to Wolski's incapacity, Worman was appointed plenary guardian of Wolski's person and estate. In 2021, a petition for appointment of substitute guardian was filed alleging Worman of caregiver neglect, and Worman was removed as guardian for Wolski. The Family Service Association of Northeastern Pennsylvania ("FSA") was appointed as substitute guardian of Wolski's person and estate.

In February 2022, Nancy Hudack of FSA filed a PFA petition on behalf of Wolski, alleging Worman emotionally abused Wolski. The trial court entered a temporary PFA order against Worman and scheduled a hearing on the matter for February 28, 2022. The court held the hearing as scheduled, and Worman did not attend, although it was confirmed on the record that she had received notice of the hearing via email. See N.T., 2/28/22, at 11, 16-17. Following the hearing, the court entered a final PFA order, set to expire on August 28, 2022.¹

On March 8, 2022, Worman filed a motion for a hearing nunc pro tunc/motion for re-hearing. The court did not enter an order expressly granting reconsideration, but did hold a hearing on Worman's motion on March 28, 2022, after which it denied the motion. Worman filed her notice of appeal from the February 28, 2022 PFA order on April 18, 2022.

Given this timeline, we must first determine whether Worman's notice of appeal is untimely, which would divest this Court of jurisdiction to consider the merits of the appeal. See Commonwealth v. Burks, 102 A.3d 497, 500 (Pa. Super. 2014). Pa.R.A.P. 903(a) requires an aggrieved party to file a notice of appeal within 30 days after the entry of the order from which the appeal is taken. See Pa.R.A.P. 903(a). This 30-day appeal period is not tolled by the mere filing of a motion for reconsideration; rather, it is only tolled by a trial court's timely order expressly granting reconsideration. See Pa.R.Civ.P. 1930.2(b); Pa.R.A.P. 1701(b)(3); Valley Forge Center Associates v. Rib-It/K.P., Inc., 693 A.2d 242, 245 (Pa. Super. 1997). Therefore, even when a party files a petition for reconsideration within the 30-day appeal period, the party must simultaneously file a notice of appeal to preserve their appellate rights in the event the trial court does not expressly grant the petition within the 30 days or denies the petition, as it did here. See id.

In the instant matter, the final PFA order was entered on February 28, 2022, Worman's motion for reconsideration did not toll the 30-day appeal period, and Worman did not file her notice of appeal until April 18, 2022. This would seem to make Worman's appeal facially untimely. However, in civil cases, the 30-day appeal period only begins to run from the date the prothonotary notes in the docket that notice of the order has been provided to the parties pursuant to Pa.R.A.P. 236(b). See Pa.R.A.P. 108(b). While there is a notation in the docket that the PFA order was entered on February 28, 2022, there is no entry on the docket establishing that Rule 236(b) notice of that order was given to the parties. This Court has held that, in these circumstances, the "appeal period has not started to run." In re L.M. 923 A.2d 505, 509 (Pa. Super. 2007). Given the absence of a docket entry showing Rule 236(b) notice was given here, we decline to quash the appeal on the basis that it was untimely filed.

However, we are constrained to quash the appeal for a different reason: Worman's brief utterly fails to comply with the Rules of Appellate Procedure.² Worman's brief does not contain a separate statement of jurisdiction, the order in question, a statement of the scope and standard of review, a statement of the questions involved, a statement of the case, or a summary of the argument, all of which are explicitly required by Pa.R.A.P. 2111. She does not attach the trial court's opinion or order, as mandated by Pa.R.A.P. 2111(b).

Instead, Worman has provided this Court with a "Reply to the court's opinion," which is unpaginated and merely consists of a list of 38 paragraphs. In those paragraphs, Worman launches into a wide variety of unsubstantiated allegations, including allegations that "all parties" are "participating in a cover up" and violating Wolski's civil rights, human rights and rights prescribed by the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA"). Worman complains these parties are also biased against her and are violating her first and second amendment rights, and have slandered and defamed her. It is not always evident to which "party" Worman is referring.

Worman does specifically argue that Hudack has engaged in "numerous violations of rights" and should be charged with a crime, guardian abuse and an "unsworn falsification violation." She maintains the trial court engaged in judicial misconduct and was in contempt of its own court order. She calls for a federal investigation in several places in her brief. In the end, Worman's allegations are undeveloped and do not in any way specifically define her issues. She also does not cite to any law, with the exception of some provisions of the ADA typed out in different fonts at the end of her document. Worman's "argument" section of her brief, at bottom, does not comply with Pa.R.A.P. 2119(a).

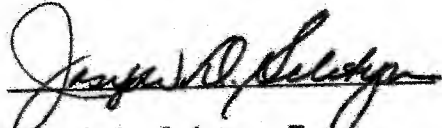

We recognize, of course, that Worman is proceeding pro se and is clearly of the belief that many errors have been made by the trial court and others. However, all parties, including those proceeding pro se, are required to submit briefs which comply with the Rules of Appellate Procedure. See in re Ullman, 995 A.2d 1207, 1211-1212 (Pa. Super. 2010). Worman has flagrantly failed to do so here. She has submitted a brief which is missing almost all of the components of a brief required by our Rules of Appellate Procedure, and instead submitted a document with an "argument" section that does not allow for any type of meaningful appellate review. Under these circumstances, we are constrained to quash the appeal. See id.; Pa.R.A.P. 2101.³

Appeal quashed. Application for Post-Submission Communication denied.

Judgment Entered.

Joseph D. Seletyn, Esq.
Prothonotary

Date: 04/05/2023

³ Worman has also filed a lengthy application for post-submission communication, which consists of more far-reaching allegations of misconduct by FSA, the trial court and others. She has not offered any justification to support the granting of this application, and we fail to see any such justification. Accordingly, the application is denied.
